Subject: Radio H.F. Internet Newsletter - SPECIAL EDITION #2

September 19, 2001 / le 19 septembre, 2001

Following up last week's special edition of the Radio H.F. Internet Newsletter, I have prepared this Special Edition Number 2 with a few more interesting web sites, particularly focusing on the country of Afghanistan, a nation thrust into the spotlight as a result of last week's terrorist actions in the United States.

I hope you find this information helpful. If you have interesting sites that you have discovered in your surfing, please feel free to send them along to me for possible publication in a future edition of the Newsletter.

AMERICA UNDER ATTACK - LIVE

http://emc.elte.hu/~hargitai/wtcmemorial/

From Hungary, Henrik Hargetai has set up this World Trade Center memorial site to keep recorded broadcasts of September 11, 2001 alive on the Internet.
The site is an archive of live news broadcasts from radio and television, web pages, and printed press front pages. There is also a section of actual TV screenshots from around the world.
This site is still under construction. Mr. Hargetai is soliciting input from people around the world who may have additional material to add to the collection.
